THE WEATHER.

Conditions.
Rain was general Sunday in the middle Atlantic states, due to a trough of low pressure that formed within the last 24 hours. Snow fell in the upper lake region and at scattered points in the Mississippi and lower Ohio valleys. It is decidedly colder in the interior valleys.

Rain is probable Monday throughout Atlantic coast districts with a general fall in temperature that will reach the coast by Tuesday. Tuesday will be generally fair and relatively cold east of the Mississippi.

The winds along the middle and northern Atlantic coasts will be fresh southeast, increasing Monday and shifting to northeast Tuesday.

Forecast.
New England and eastern New York: Rain Monday; Tuesday fair and colder.

Motorcycle Skidded.
While turning up the hill on Providence street a motorcycle belonging to a Massachusetts man skidded and the rider and companion who was seated on back to the ground. Neither man was seriously hurt but both received a shaking up. One of the riders escaped lucky as the machine fell on him. The accident occurred Sunday morning about 10 o'clock. The machine was not damaged to much extent save the smashing of a peddle and other minor scratches. The machine was repaired at a local garage.

Attended Fair and Dance.
A number of local young people at-
